This proxy refers to _____ of my shares in the Company (if this field is left blank, the proxy refers to all shares for which a deposit certificate was issued by the custodian bank as of the record date).

The special proxy is not authorized to grant sub-proxies, except to another special independent proxy proposed by the Company pursuant to Section 3 (4) for the Annual General Meeting or for important reasons (e.g. absence due to illness).

On the basis of this proxy and pursuant to Section 3 (4) of the Regulation, the shareholder(s) can order the special proxy to introduce motions or to challenge resolutions adopted on one or several agenda items. I/we order the special proxy to introduce the motions specified below and/or to challenge the resolutions adopted by the Annual General Meeting specified below (provided these are adopted in accordance with the respective resolutions proposed by the Management Board and/or the Supervisory Board). If the table below is left blank, no such order is given to the special proxy and challenges will not be raised.

Agenda item	Order to introduce a motion or to challenge a resolution

Shareholders can contact their special proxy by telephone (tel.: +43 1 535 80 08) (by telephone exclusively before, but not during the Annual General Meeting) or by email g.wilfling@mplaw.at. Contacting the special proxy in due time is recommended if shareholders wish to give their special proxy orders to introduce one or several motions and/or to challenge one or several agenda items.

The special proxy has the right to abstain from introducing one or several motions if these are contra bonos mores, against the law, or, according to the special proxy's reasonable assessment, likely to cause the latter significant damage, or if the special proxy by doing so would be committing a criminal offense.

If no instruction is received on individual agenda items or if the instruction received is unclear (e.g. to vote FOR/YES and AGAINST/NO on the same proposed resolution), the special proxy will abstain from voting. The special proxy will not act on proxies without instructions.

The special proxy is explicitly exempted from the prohibition of double representation and self-contracting. He is explicitly allowed to also represent other shareholders of the Company at the Annual General Meeting.

If you sign this proxy on behalf of a shareholder or a legal person, please attach a document as proof of your power of attorney (proxy, extract from Companies Register or other register extract).

Information for shareholders regarding data processing

In order to enable the shareholders to exercise their rights within the framework of the Annual General Meeting, UNIQA processes the shareholders' personal data (in particular data pursuant to Section 10a (2) of the Stock Corporation Act, i.e. name, address, date of birth, number of the securities deposit account, number of shares held by the shareholder, type of shares, where applicable, number of the voting card and, where applicable, the name and date of birth of the proxy-holder(s)) on the basis of the data protection provisions in effect, especially the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), as well as the Austrian Data Protection Act and the Stock Corporation Act.

Pursuant to the Stock Corporation Act, the processing of personal data of shareholders is a mandatory prerequisite for the participation of shareholders (including the special proxies) in the Annual General Meeting. The legal basis for data processing is Article 6 (1) c) of the GDPR.

UNIQA is the controller responsible for the processing of personal data. For the purpose of organizing the Annual General Meeting, UNIQA Insurance Group AG uses the services of external service providers, such as public notaries, lawyers, banks and IT providers. These receive from UNIQA only such personal data as are required for the performance of the contractually agreed services and process such data exclusively on the basis of instructions received from UNIQA. As far as required by law, UNIQA has concluded privacy agreements with these service providers.

The special proxies, the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board, the public notary and all other persons entitled by law to participate in the Annual General Meeting have the right to view the legally required list of attendance (Section 117 of the Stock Corporation Act) and thus view the personal data specified therein (such as name, place of residence, number of shares). Moreover, UNIQA is obliged by law to submit personal shareholder data (in particular the list of attendance) as part of the minutes prepared by the public notary to the Companies Register (Section 120 of the Stock Corporation Act).

The shareholder data are anonymized and/or deleted as soon as they are no longer required for the purposes for which they were collected or processed, provided further storage is not required by other legal provisions. Duties of documentation and retention arise, in particular, under company law, stock corporation law and the law on mergers and acquisitions, inter alia from Section 128 (4) of the Stock Corporation Act (duty of the company to issue a certificate, upon the shareholder's request within 14 days after the vote, confirming the correct recording and counting of the votes cast by the respective shareholder), as well as tax law and the provisions on the prevention of money laundering and the financing of terrorism. If legal claims are raised by shareholders against or vice versa by UNIQA against shareholders, the storage of personal data serves to clarify and enforce such claims in individual cases. In connection with civil court proceedings, this may result in the storage of data during the period of limitations and, additionally, for the duration of court proceedings until a final decision is rendered.

Every shareholder has at any time the right to information, rectification, erasure or restriction of processing of their personal data, as well as the right to object to processing and the right to data portability in accordance with the provisions of Chapter III of the GDPR, unless legal provisions to the contrary apply. Shareholders can invoke these rights free of charge vis-à-vis UNIQA by contacting the Company by email at datenschutz@uniga.at or at the following contact data: UNIQA Insurance Group AG, Untere Donaustrasse 21, 1029 Vienna, fax: +43 50677 676 (UNIQA Customer Service).

Moreover, shareholders have the right to lodge a complaint with the Austrian data protection authority pursuant to Article 77 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

As stated in the convocation, the entire Annual General Meeting will be webcast from beginning to end. This is explicitly permitted by Art.8 para.11 of the Articles of Association of the Company and indispensable in the case of a virtual Annual General Meeting. Given the legal basis (Section 102 (4) Stock Corporation Act), webcasting is in compliance with data protection law.

For further information on data protection, please refer to the Privacy Policy published on the Company's website (www.uniqagroup.com) under Services/Data Protection.
